election of the members of the board, the Central Registrar shall hold the election within a period of ninety days from the date when such election became due. There are instances where the Central Registrar could not intervene under the provisions of this section of the MSCS Act, 2002 due to injunction/directions or order of the Courts or the matter was not brought to the notice of the Central Registrar.

After receiving information that elections to the Board of Directors of any multi-State co-operative society have not been conducted when such election became due, the Central Registrar takes appropriate steps to ensure that election are conducted. Therefore, the question of any action against the Central Registrar does not arise.

NAFED loans

591. SHRI MOTIUR RAHMAN: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to refer to the answer to Unstarred Question 1073 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 2nd December, 2005 and state:

(a) the details of persons, businessmen, corporate houses, etc. to whom loans were given by NAFED indicating the purpose for which the loans was given together with the quantum of loan given to each one during 2000-2004;

(b) whether the bye-laws of NAFED permit to give loans to other than farmers and whether the persons, etc. to whom loans were given were entitled to receive loan from NAFED and, if so, the details of the rules and if not, the action Government propose to take in the matter; and

(c) the quantum of loan recovered so far, loan-wise?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI KANTI LAL BHURIA): (a) NAFED has reported that it has not given any loan to any person, businessmen, corporate houses etc. It has undertaken business with its business associates under Public Private Partnership (PPP) and has provided line of credit to its business associates. A statement showing party-wise details of business undertaken by NAFED under PPP, indicating the purpose, quantum of amount of advance and amount recovered is enclosed as Statement (See below).

(b) The bye-laws of NAFED permit to advance loans to its members and other cooperative institutions on the security of goods or otherwise. It has been reported by NAFED that it has not given any loan to any person, businessmen, corporate houses etc.

(c) Information contained in the statement annexed as above, in reply to part (a) of the question.

Statement
